The Lowell Courier states that the reduction of wages in a single establishment in that place was a reduction of the prices of piece-work, caused by the introduction of improved machinery, whereby the girls could and did make quite as much as they formerly could with the old machinery at the old prices-many of them a dollar a day. Yet, fifty of them were fooled into a strike, which has thrown them out of work entirely; and now they would gladly come back, and have applied to, but their places are filled.

WHO PAYS, OR BY WHOM ORDERED ?-We hear that on Thanksgiving day, and again on another day last week, and on two days of this week, the Loco-Foco members of the Common Council, and the Loco-Foco members elect from the city to the Assembly, held caucuses in the chamber of the Board of Aldermen, at which the topic for arrangement was such a consolidation of the three lower Wards of the city, and such a Gerrymandering of the upper Wards, as to ensure in all time a Loco-Foco majority in the Common Council. After each of these meetings, as we farther hear, a dinner for some 25 or 30 was ordered, and eaten in the Tea Roem by these plotting patriots. If this be true, who audits and who pays the bills for these entertainments? We pause for a reply. As to the Gerrymandering scheme, we shall have something to say of that on another occasion.

Mr. Raymond is, we are sorry to say, very feeble and sick, and will not long, probably, compete for the honor of being "the last of the crow of Paul Jones." [Jour. Com.

CITY INTELLIGENCE. TUESDAY, January 3.

VICE-CHANCELLOR'S COURT .- Before Vice Chancellor M'Coun. IMPORTANT DECISION .- Samuel G. Ogden vs. John Jacob

Aster and Wm. B. Aster.—Mr. Nicholas Ogden, bro her of complainant, was established at Canton in 1818, as agent to Mr. J. J. Aster, and was to receive one-fifth of the profits in compensation. Mr. A. soon afterward took his son, Mr. Wm. B. Astor, into copartnership with him in this city. Mr. N. Ogden died at Canton in 1823, upwards of $12,000,000 having passed through his hands. The complainant was at that time in France, and the estate was administered upon by Mary G. Ogden, a sister of deceased, and Mr. George Eheringer, a nephew of Mr. Astor. In 1826 an account was presented to the administrators by Messra Astor, showing that the estate of Nicholas Ogden owed them over $9,000. The matter there rested. In 1820 the complainant returned to New-York, and endeavored to obtain access to the books and accounts relative to his brother's estate, but did not succeed. On investigating affairs, he accidentally learned that Mr. Jacob Covert of Canton took charge of his brother's business, and paid into the hands of Mr. Benjamin Clapp (who, after the death of Mr. Ogden, had been sent to Canton by Messis. A.) the sum of $127,000. Two cargoes that had arrived about the time of Mr. O.'s decease, were not mentioned in the account rendered the estate, nor were several other items on which the deceased was entitled to his profits of one-fifth. The complainant, in 1841, having obtained letters of administration, filed a bill in this Court, contending that, instead of his brother owing Messrs. Astor $9,000 at the time of his death, they were indebted to him about $55,000, and asking to have the whole copartnership ousiness thrown open, grounding his claim to such on the principle that Messrs. Astor exercised fraud in rendering the account they did. A demurrer was then put in by deendants, pleading the statute of limitations as a bar to the bill being brought.

The Vice-Chancellor, in giving his opinion, stated that he statute of limitations applies to the Equity Courts in cases where there is a concurrent right of action in Courts of Law. A portion of the sections in the bill are of that tescription, but not all; and as the demurrer strikes at the whole bill, it cannot be allowed. The case of Troup & Smith, 20th Johnson, and another in this Court, are in point. Some of the allegations in this bill can only be reached by a Court of Equity, and as the charge is fraud, the Court ba jurisdiction, notwithstanding so many years have clapsed; peside which, the bill states that a large lot of teas at Havre, and a number of debts, had not been accounted for by Messrs. A The demurrer does not say they were coltected or settled at a period which places them within the statute of limitations. Demurrer overruled, with costs, and 40 days allowed to defendants to answer the bill.

David Marston vs. Geo. Paulding, impleaded, &c .- Re. lative to two Savings Bank Books, belonging to the estate of Ann S. Marston, deceased, on which detendant adminis tered. Ordered, that proceedings in this case be staid till" the defendant's costs are paid.

CIRCUIT COURT .- Before Judge Kent .-Josiah Howe vs. Fred'k R. Lee .- On Saturday night, 16th

October, 1841, the plaintiff (who is a lawyer) and George Gibbs, were arrested by a watchman named Samuel Pinkney, on a charge of disorderly conduct. They were allowed to appear in the morning. Alderman Lee was at the office (Upper Police) where they appeared on Sunday, but refused to take bail, he not knowing, he said, any thing of he transaction, and Justice Taylor being absent. They were confined about six bours. Action is brought against Ald. L. for not taking bail-the damages placed at $1,000 The case is still on. SPECIAL SESSIONS .- Before Judge Lynch and Aldermen Woodhull and Balis. Sundry persons tried and convicted and sentences for petty offences-and the Court adjourned to Friday next at o'clock. COURT OF SESSIONS .- Before the Recorder,

The January Term opened to-day with the following cases on the calender, viz: Arson, 1st degree, 2; Robbery 1 Surglary 3; Fergery 8; Bigamy 1; Assault and Batters with intent to kill 2; Grand Larceny 9; receiving stoler goods 2; False Pretence 1; Malicious Trespass 1-total 25. Previously convicted 5; indicted 23; abandoning wife 1 bastardy 3; witnesses 3-total 35; total of old and new

The following gentlemen were sworn as Grand Jurors, viz: James Brown, William Browning, George Brooks, Jas. Beatty, Berjamin Curtis, Henry R. Dunbam, Zenas Hyde. John C. Hull, James K. Hamilton, Arthur Harrison, George Love: t, Benjamin Loder, Joseph M, Marsh, Abraham Quackenbush, Jeremiah Skidmore, Owen Townsend, John Van Buskirk-17.

The Recorder charged the Grand Inquest at great length and ability, on their appropriate duties and on the subject of the comparative progress or increase and decrease of crime, &c., in relation to which he presented numerous statistics of an interesting character, as follows:- In relation to increase of crime, he remarked:

"It is a remark not unfrequently made, of late, and that "It is a remark not unirequently made, or late, and that too from high quarters, that crime is greatly on the increase in this city, and that it is attributable to the inefficiency or culpable negligence of your Police Department, in the detention of offenders, or the lax administration of the criminal laws of the State. As to the first suggestion, the criminal laws of the State. As to the first suggestion, that crime is greatly on the increase in this city, the statistics which we possess do not not at all justify or sustain the correctness of the remark. By a recent report made to the Common Gouncii by our indefatigable District Attorney, James R. Whiting, Esq., it appears that the whole number of complaints made during the year 1830 was. 2,842

During the year 1836. 3,796

Do. the year 1442. 1,908

Shewing an increase to the year 1835, since which year tkere has been a rapid and large diminution in the number of complaints, and consequently of crime in this country. In relation to convictions in this city the same satisfactory result appears, as is shown in the same report, the convictions in 1830 being in the ratio of one to every three hundred and twenty-one inhabitants, while in 1840 the ratio was one to three hundred and forty five.

In 1835, the recognizances to answer were..........3,580

riod of time.

In relation to discharged Convicts the Recorder proceeds:

"The condition of conv.cts, at and after the expiration of their sentences, calls loudly for the examination of notice of Government. Discharged from our State Prisons, with characters deeply tainted, and consequently with a loss of that pride of character which constitutes so strong a safe-guard against the commission of crime, avoided by those whose favorable opinion we must desire, and left destitute of all pecuniary resources, is it a source of surprise that they again resort to crime, and receive with almost cold they again resort to crime, and receive with almost cold indifference the renewed sentence of the law? During my brief official life, appeals of a most interesting character have been made to me by this class of unfortunates, who have deeply felt their degradation, and expressed the most determined to outloon to pursue an honorable course of life, could they but be again received into society, and encouraged in their lawful pursuits. It is known to the Grand Increast that a surplus fined over any above the Inquest that a surplus fund over and above the necessary expenditure for the support of our prison, accumulates annually; and how great reform might be produced by applying that fund in proper amounts of even $25 or $36 to the aid of those convicts whose conduct has been meritorious the aid of those convers whose conduct has been meritorious during their confinement, and where the commissioners believe it could be beneficially applied—such a system would induce good and orderly conduct while in prison, and would afford a small capital up: a which their future usefolness, and entire reclamation from crime inight be presided.—We have not from the day for the entire charge.

The Grand Jury then retired to enter upon their official duties. The names of the Petit Jurors were called and out of C summoned, only 38 appeared to serve. Fines of $25 each were imposed on eight defaulting Grand and Petit Jurors for non-attendance at the former and pres-

Chairman Lecture Co T Orlando Fish, Fashionable Hatter, 157 Broad way, would inform the gentlemen of New-York that his Fall and Wister style of Hats is now ready for their inspec tion and critical judgement. Claiming the distinction o having been the first to project and abide by a strictly AMERICAN style of Hats, instead of servilely copying the Fashions of Europe, which are often unsuited to our cli-mate and manners, he rejoices to perceive that others have seen fit to follow his lead, and that now the following of European Fashions in Hats is almost entirely abandoned by

He offers a Winter style of Gentlemen's Nutria Hats at $3.50, and werrouts them legual in material, finish, fashion and durability to any Hat sold as low as $4 in the city. Improvement in whatever regards the happiness and wel fare of our race is constantly on the march to perfection, and with each succeeding day some new problem is solved, or some profound secret revealed, having an important and direct bearing over man's highest destinies. If we take a retrospective view over the past twenty years, how is the mind struck with wonder! What rapid strides has science made in every department of civilized life! particularly in that which relates to the knowledge of the human system in health and disease. How valuable and indispensable are the curative means recently discovered through the agency of chemistry! How does the imagination kindle and our admiration glow at the ingenuity, the near approach to the standard of perfection, of the present time! Through the elaborate investigations of Physiology, or the science of Life, and the Pathology of prevalent diseases, much valua-ble practical knowledge has been gained. In consequence of becoming acquainted with the organization, the elements of the various tissues and structures of the system, remedies have been sought after and discovered exactly adapted to combine with, neutralize and expel morbific matter, the cause of disease, and substitute healthy action is its place. The beautiful simplicity of this mode of treatment is not only suggested by the pathology of diseases, not only grateful to the sufferer, but perfectly in consonance with the operations of Nature, and satisfactory to the views and reasonings of every intelligent, reflecting mind. It is thus that SANDS's SARSAPARILLA, a scientific combination of essential princip es of the most valuable vegetable substances, operates upon the system. The Sarsaparilla is combined with the most effectual aids, the most salutary productions, the most potent simples of the vegetable kingdom; and its unprece-dented success in the restoration to health of those who had long pined under the most distressing chronic maladies, has given it an exalted character, furnishing as it does evidence of its own intrinsic value, and recommending it to the at dicted in terms the afflicted only can know. It has long been a most important desideratum in the practice of medicine to obtain a remedy similar to this-one that would act on the liver, stomach and bowels with all the precision and potency of mineral preparations, yet without any of their deleterious effects upon the vital powers of the system

The disease with which I was afflicted commenced with inflammation of the eyes, in the year 1856, which caused almost total bindness. For this I was treated and finally relieved, but the remedies were such as to cause the development of a scrotulous affection on my left arm near the glow.

"The pain extended from the shoulder to the end of my fingers, and for two years my sufferings were beyond dis-cription, I tried various remedies and consulted different Physicians in New-York and amongst them the late Dr. Sushe, who told me the disease of the arm was caused by the large quantity of mercury taken to cure the inflamma ion of my eyes. My sufferings continued, the arm enlarged, tu mour ormed in different places, and in a few months discharged, taking ten running ulcers at one time, some above and ome below the elbow, and the discharge was so offensive that no person could bear to be in the room where I was that no person could bear to be in the room where I was.—

I then applied to another distinguished Physician who told one amputation of the arm was the only thing that could save my lite, as it was impossible to cure so dreadful a disease; but as I was unwilling to consent to it he recommended me to use. Swaim's Panacea freely, which I did without deriving but little benefit. "For three years I was unable to raise my hand to my head or comb my hair, and the scrollar now have the programment of the poper in the poper in the poper. made its appearance on my head, destroying the bone in different places, causing extensive ulcerations at d I is ared it might reach and slestroy the brain—the head swelled very much, accompanied with violent pain, numerous external it might reach and sestroy the brain—the head swelled very much, accompanied with violent pain, numerous external remedies were recommended, but they did no good.—About a year since I was taken severely ill with a swelling of the body from head to foot, so that I was entirely helpless, the Doctor advised me to go to the Hospital, for he did not understand my case; for the last few months I had been afflicted with a severe pain in both sides, at times so hard I could scarcely get my breath. A backing cough constantly annoyed me, and this combined with my other maladies, rendered me truly miserable. Such, gentlemen, had been my situation for seven years of my life when I commenced the use of your Sarsapavilla, but as my case was considered hopeless, and the near prospect of a speedy dissolution seemed inevitable, I feit but little ensouragement to persevere. The persuasion of friends induced the to try your anedicine, which in a few days produced a great change in my system generally, by causing an appetite, relieving the pains, and giving me strength; as success inspires confidence, I was encouraged to persevere, my pains grew easier, my strength returned, food relished, so ulcers bealed, new flesh formed, and I once more felt within me that I might get well. I have now used the Sarsaparilla about two months and am like a different being. The arm that was to be amputated has entirely healed, a thing that seemed impossible. I can scarcely believe the evidence of my own eyes, but such is the fact; and it is now as useful as at any period of my life, and my geaeral health is better than it has been for years past.

The following certificate is from a gentleman who lost he whole of his nose from a severe Scrofulous disease. It BROOKLYN, Nov. 25, 1842.

Messrs, Sands: Gest.—Although 1 am disfigured and deformed for life, I have not lost my recollection; and never, while I exist, shall I cease to feel grateful for benefits conferred, through the use of your invaluable Sarsaparılla. I was attacked in the year 1528 with a scrofulous affection on the end of my nose, commencing with a small red spot, attanded with itching and burning sensations. This induced rubbing, and now commenced the ravages of a disease which progressed as follows: the left nostril was first destroyed, and, continuing upwards, it crossed the bridge of the nose, and, seizing upon the right side, destroyed the cartilage, bone and all the surrounding parts, until, finally, the nose was entilely eaten off; the passage for conveying tears from the eye to the nose obliterated, which caused a continual flow of tears. The disease now seized upon the noner tip, extending to the right cheek, and my feelings and while I exist, shall I cease to feel grateful for benefits con-tears from the eye to the mase obliterated, which clusted a contisual flow of tears. The disease now seized upon the upper lip, extending to the right cheek, and my feeings and sufferings were such ascan better be imagined thandescribed. I am a native of Nottingham, in England, and my case is well known there. The first Physicians in the Kingdom prescribed for me, but with little benefit. At one time I was directed to take 63 drops of the "Tincture of Ionine" three times a day, which I continued for six months in succession. At another time I applied 01 of Viriol to the parts. After this used a prescription of Sir Astley Cooper's, but all proved in vain. I continue it to grow worse, and as a drowning man will catch at a straw, I used every remedy I could hear of that was considered applicable to my case, until I became disgusted with the treatment, and relinquished all hope of ever getting well.

Many pronounced the disease a Caneer, but Dr. Munder whose treatment I was, considered it Scrofulous Lupus, and this is the name given it by medical men. As a last resort I was recommended to try change of air and an Atlantic voyage, and in April last I salled for America, and arrived here in the month of May. The disease continued gradually to increase, extending upwards and backwards, having destroyed the entire nose, and fast verging towards the frontal bone, it seized upon the upper jaw and surrounding paris.

While crossing on the Ferry-boat from Brooklyn to New-towards the frontal sone, it sended upon the upper jaw and surrounding parts.

While crossing on the Ferry-boat from Brooklynto New-York, a gentleman was attracted by my appearance and thus accosted me: "My friend, have you used the Sarsaparilla?" Yes, repited I, various kinds, and every thing else I could hear of; but, said he, "I mean Sands's Sarsaparilla." No, I repited. "Then use it, for I believe it will come you? Being thus addressed by a stranger I was incure you." Being thus addressed by a stranger I was in-duced to make trial of a medicine he so highly recommended.
I purchased one bottle, which gave some relief, and wonderful to tell, after using your Sarsaparilla less than two months, I feel within me well. The disease is stopped in its ravages, all those racking and tormenting pains are gone, my food relishes, my digestion is good, and I steep well; and, under the blessing of Divine Providence, I attribute the result entirely to the use of Sands's Sarsaparilla. With a desire that the afflicted may no longer delay, but use the right medicine and get cured,

I remain, with feelings of lasting gratitude,

Your friend,

THOMAS LLOYD,

COLTON'S MEDICATED CANDY.—

Please allow me, through the columns of your paper, to call the attention of those who are suffering from coughts, colds, &c. to a preparation for the relief of difficulties of this kind by C. F. Colton of this city.

I have made frequent use of Colton's Medicated Cough Candy, and in all cases to my entire satisfaction. Also, I have been personally acquainted in cases of others who have used it with like results.

It is evidently an agreeable and efficacious medicine, and may be taken freely without prejudicial effects upon the system. In this last respect particularly it is decidedly superior to the generality of articles of the kind now offered in the market as safe and harmless medicine, and is thereby, in connection with its medicinal merits, justly entitled to the ine market as sale and warmiess incusting, and is afterey, in connection with its medicinal merits, justly entitled to the first and highest confidence of those who may wish the relief which it claims to afford.

It is confidently believed one trial of this Caudy can hardly tail to secure for it all future patronage.
